

Information for International Students

Welcome to Hannover!

Congratulations on your decision to study in Hannover! This offers a great opportunity to learn about people and the culture not only from Germany but also from all over the world. While at first things will feel a little uncomfortable and insecure, before long you will have a new sense of confidence and capability to thrive in the new culture, and you will make life-long friends from all over the world!

To make your start in Hannover easier, we have compiled some information that is likely to be of interest to you.
