

Social counseling for students

Since October 2013, the Studentenwerk Hannover at the TiHo has offered social counseling for students. The consultations of the social counseling office are held at the TiHo Tower at the Bünteweg campus in the first floor in room 109. Every Friday from 11.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m., students can use the free service. All conversations will of course be kept strictly confidential.

Help is provided on questions of study financing (with exception of BAföG), insurances, housing allowance, exemption from broadcast fee or findings jobs. Employees of the Studentenwerk are also available in a consulting function in case of special problems of foreign students with children and in conflict situations of any kind.

Appointments can also be arranged outside the office hours and the possibility of a consultation by phone exists too: Tel.: +49 511 76-88919, -88922, -88935.
