

Studentenwerk Hannover

It is stated in the Lower Saxony Higher Education Act that the task of the Studentenwerk is the economic, health, social and cultural promotion of the students .

It serves as a public institution with around 240 employees according to the principles of common benefit and self-administration in which, of course, the students also participate.

In order to fulfill its tasks, the Studentenwerk Hannover manages:

- canteens and cafeterias
- maintains residential houses for students
- offers a social counseling and social support for students in special life situations
- gives information about health and accident insurance
- supports cultural activities of students and informs students about all study-related important questions

On behalf of the Land of Lower Saxony, it is also responsible for the handling of BAföG applications.
